Key Takeaways: Google Ads, August 2026

- Google drove $28,212 in revenue at 144% ROAS; revenue grew 19.1% YoY on 19.8% more spend.
- Brand Search returned 383% ROAS at $12.69 per conversion on only 15% of Google spend.
- Non-brand Search is the weak spot: 68% ROAS and $65.74 per conversion despite a strong 4.5% CTR. It gets the clicks, but they don't convert.
- Next: tighten non-brand keywords and landing pages, and test shifting budget toward Performance Max (128% ROAS).

Key Takeaways: Google Analytics, August 2026

- Sessions grew 23.6% YoY to 63,630, with 60% engaged and a 2.16% conversion rate.
- Email converts best (2.94%) and has the highest engagement (71%), so it's worth growing the list.
- Google Ads claims $28,212 in revenue, but GA4 credits it with $17,384.
- Meta claims $11,450 and GA4 credits $9,033.
- Platform-reported ROAS overstates the real return.
- Next: judge budget decisions on GA4 and Shopify revenue rather than platform-reported numbers, and test more email capture on site.
